This is a historical article published in Dominguezia, which presents reproductions of many original photos of Spegazzini (1858-1926) found in his personal compendium that was conserved by his son in law José Fortunato Molino at the Faculty of Pharmacy in Buenos Aires. For instance, one may find the original photo used by Britton and Rose to illustrate Rebutia minuscula (see at right), with a comment written by Spegazzini that was unknown up to now.

Fabián provides Au Cactus Francophone with two supplementary files:

- Some supplementary notes about the publication:
 - French: FontNotas-FR.docx
 - English: FontNotas-EN.docx
 - Spanish: FontNotas-SP.docx
- A spreadsheet (Excel) file that gives further details about each photo: ICONES.xlsx

These files refer to three other references to Spegazzini's work:

- A book by Roberto Kiesling available from the e-library: Cactáceas Publicadas por el Dr. Carlos Spegazzini.

- Two publications by Katinas, Guttierrez, & Torres Robles:
 - Carlos Spegazzini \(1858-1926\): Travels and botanical work on vascular plants.
 - Type material of Carlos L. Spegazzini in the Museo de La Plata herbarium \(LP\), Argentina.
